★★★★★★

A Landlord's experience...

The staff at Rawlinson Gold always give great support and use their experience and insight to support both the Landlord and the tenants. I have worked with them for over ten years now and have never been let down. They are on top of current and developing legislation. They also make use of applicable technology to make the rental process easier for all parties.

Peter

★★★★★★

Experience and support...

Especially as a new landlord, it's great to have an agent with many years of experience to support me in my business.

Lots of viewings and very proactive...

They organised lots of viewings and got us a great price. When we got into difficulties with our original buyer they were quickly on the case with several new offers within a few days. They were very proactive in chasing solicitors and other parties.

Andy

★★★★★

Excellent Lettings Management service...

Excellent Lettings Management service from Sarah as always. Providing valued information and guidance when requested to ensure my rental property issues are few and limited. Thank you again.

Dan
